Amongst projects that the company has already brought to realization is a village made up of exclusive cottages at Visokie Yeli, situated in the resort area of St Petersburg. In Russian the name Visokie Yeli means high fir trees.

Visokie Yeli

Visokie Yeli

It is a housing estate, including a developed public zone, in a unified architectural style, and which includes household services and developed areas. Visokie Yeli was one of the company's first projects, and was completed in 2002.

Visokie Yeli

- 5 wooden Finnish houses
- 5 kilometres from St Petersburg along the Primorskoe Road
- next to the Gulf of Finland

Gorki SPB

Gorki SPb is a cottage club housing estate project for permanent living that was begun in May 2004. In Russian the name Gorki Spb means St Petersburg hills.

The building site was finished at the end of 2006. It took 2 years to create a modern, comfortable living environment, which is a real alternative to a city flat.

Gorki SPB

Developed infrastructures and the introduction of the latest building technology and modern engineering systems are just some of the indisputable merits of Gorki SPB. The cooperation between PetroStyle and the Bulthaup Design Gallery resulted in the Villa Olivia show home.

Gorki SPB

- 16 houses in the Scandinavian constructivist style
- the architectural project has been designed by the Arkval architectural bureau from Finland.
- plots of land from 0.2 hectares
- a total area of 4 hectares

Medovoe

In 2007 PetroStyle has announced a new and ambitious project – the development of a deluxe cottage estate called Medovoe near St Petersburg. The name Medovoe is based on the Russian word for honey.

Medovoe

It is planned to build 23 comfortable cottages of area 450 square metres each, surrounded by spacious plots of land including garages for 2 cars, to cover a total area of 13.7 hectares.

Medovoe

The development will be dominated by the 'Waves' club house, designed by the Italian architect Gaetano Pesce.

- the individual plots of land are between 0.35 to 13.6 hectares in area
- the infrastructure fulfils the requirements of even the most discerning taste
